Understanding the Cremation Process

Understanding the steps involved in cremation can help families feel more comfortable and informed when arranging services with the Cremation Society of MN Brooklyn Park.

Initial Arrangements

The process begins with contacting the society to discuss the deceased's information and the family's preferences. Necessary legal documents and permits are then obtained.

Transportation and Preparation

The deceased is transported to the crematory facility where preparation for cremation occurs. This includes identification verification and any required medical procedures such as removal of medical devices.

Cremation Procedure

The actual cremation involves the use of a specialized furnace that reduces the body to ashes through intense heat. This process typically takes several hours and is performed with the utmost respect and care.

Return of Ashes

After the cremation, the ashes are processed and placed in the chosen urn or container. The family is then notified and arrangements are made for the ashes to be returned or for memorial services.

Pre-Planning and Pre-Need Arrangements

Pre-planning cremation services with the Cremation Society of MN Brooklyn Park provides peace of mind by allowing individuals to make decisions in advance, relieving their families of future stress.

Benefits of Pre-Planning

Pre-planning secures current pricing, ensures personal wishes are honored, and simplifies the process for loved ones at the time of passing.

How to Pre-Plan

The society offers consultations to discuss options and complete necessary paperwork. These arrangements are documented and can be updated as needed.

Payment Options

Various payment plans and financing options are available to accommodate different budgets. Pre-payment also protects against inflation in the cost of services.

Pricing and Affordability

Pricing transparency and affordability are key priorities for the Cremation Society of MN Brooklyn Park. They provide detailed price lists and strive to offer competitive rates.

Typical Cost Breakdown

- Basic service fee
- Direct cremation fee
- Transportation fees (if applicable)
