Consider the Age Range

Keep Questions Positive and Respectful

Avoid questions that might lead to sensitive or controversial topics. The goal is to create a warm and friendly environment, so questions should be uplifting and respectful of individual differences.

Balance Open-Ended and Simple Questions

Open-ended questions encourage storytelling and detailed responses, while simple questions can be answered quickly to keep the conversation moving.

Encourage Sharing but Allow Opt-Out

Make it clear that participation is voluntary and that no one should feel pressured to answer if they're uncomfortable. This maintains a respectful atmosphere.
