taylor swift commencement speech: Mozart in the Woods Carl Ellenberger, 2025-05-20 Fifty years ago, something special happened in the remote woods of Pennsylvania, and its song still carries on the wind today. In 1976, Carl Ellenberger, a musician before becoming a physician, gathered friends in a nineteenth-century Chautauqua Auditorium in Pennsylvania's Amish country. They thought it was a beautiful location to play the music they loved, and that it would also be fun. That gentle beginning turned into the organization called Gretna Music and nearly five decades of summer music-making, drawing audiences from across the Mid-Atlantic region to hear over 750 exceptional performances by more than 2,000 musicians from five continents. Gretna Music has welcomed the Audubon String Quartet, Dave Brubeck, Ravi Coltrane, Canadian Brass, Susanna Phillips, Orpheus Chamber Orchestra, Sonny Rollins, and Hilary Hahn, to name just a few. Within "Mozart in the Woods: Gretna Music's 50 Years" are their stories and the stories of Mt. Gretna and its residents: from financial collapse to the literal physical collapse of the hall, from cultural evolution to existential arguments over artistic integrity. Gretna Music has weathered storms, celebrated joyfully, and thrived. Ellenberger's historical account captures this long moment in time, which has simultaneously passed in the blink of an eye, while also offering a blueprint for similar endeavors. "Mozart in the Woods" is perfect for audiences and performers alike, as well as for students of performance and performance management.

taylor swift commencement speech: Good Ideas and Power Moves Sinéad O'Sullivan, 2025-09-09 A guide to the 10 power moves that have built Taylor Swift's superstardom and empire, from a former Strategist at Harvard Business School's Institute for Strategy Taylor Swift's genius is not limited to her singing and songcraft: as the founder of her own multi-billion dollar enterprise she has higher returns than 99.9% of hedge funds, and has built a stronger global corporation than nearly every other American conglomerate CEO. She is the only person that the US Federal Reserve and European Central Bank track with precision. She has a larger impact on the economy than most economists that have ever lived, and has done more for US antitrust law than any sitting member of Congress. There is a lot to learn from Taylor Swift. Global investment fund manager and former head of Strategy at HBS (and Swiftie!) Sinead O'Sullivan taps into the same genius that sells out stadiums and shuts down the internet to give Taylor—the CEO, the strategist—the respect she deserves. O'Sullivan sums up Swift's business savvy into ten big, teachable lessons, including: -Build a World (Not a Product): how to create value that is greater than the sum of its parts (or, how Taylor created the fan-centered Swiftverse that fosters community, belonging, and off-the-charts engagement) -Be Anti-Fragile: how to embrace volatility, build resilience, and thrive in uncertainty--when your competitors can't (or, how Taylor gamed the chaos of Covid shutdown to own the airwaves) -Don't Just Play the Game, Change It: how to rewrite the rules on your own terms when your chips are down (or, how Taylor almost lost control of her music catalog to Private Equity—but re-recorded all her masters and took them back)
